ehotel voted excellent employer by Focus Business and Kununu

For the third time, business magazine FOCUS-BUSINESS and employer ranking platform Kununu have ranked the "Top Employers - SME" in Germany and ehotel is there! The employees of today take a critical attitude to things - and rightly so.

Fritz Zerweck, ehotel CEO: "At ehotel, we are aware that the company's great success is made possible only by its many dedicated employees and that you can keep them only with fair salaries, a great working atmosphere and very good communication structures. Therefore, we are all the more pleased to have impressed our employees across the board with our belief and the associated services. "

Around 900,000 entrepreneur profiles were evaluated to find the best employers for 2020. Small and medium-sized enterprises (SME) encompass all companies with between 11 and 500 employees. Around 3,400 companies based in Germany impressed and receive the FOCUS seal of approval thanks to good employee evaluations last year and a recommendation rate of at least 70%. The fact that the previous year's rankings are also included in the result proves that it is worthwhile building a good working atmosphere and a healthy corporate culture in the long term, as ehotel has done from the beginning. The complete "Top Employers - SME 2020" rankings will be published in a special issue of FOCUS-BUSINESS on 26 November 2019.
